

DUPAGE HEALTH COALITION PRIVACY POLICY

January 10, 2023

This policy describes the basis on which any personal information we collect from you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us and how we use it. By visiting www.accessdupage.org and its subsites, if any, you are accepting and consenting to the practices described in this policy and our accompanying Terms of Use. If you do not agree to this Privacy Policy or the Terms of Use, please do not use the DuPage Health Coalition website.

This privacy notice discloses the privacy practices for accessdupage.org (the "Website"). This privacy notice applies solely to information collected by the Website, except where stated otherwise.

DuPage Health Coalition collects information when you visit the Website, create an account for program enrollment, edit your account information, or make a donation. Outlined below are the types of information collected, both directly from you (including technical information automatically logged by our servers) and indirectly through the collection of information by third-party service providers.

You authorize us to use, store and otherwise process any personal information which relates to and identifies you, including but not limited to, your name and address, to the extent reasonably necessary to provide the services which are available through the Website, as well as use by others, as described below.

Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

We will collect and process data and information from you including the following:

Information you give to us. This is information about you that you give to us by filling out forms on the Website or by corresponding with us through e-mail, by electronic message or otherwise. It includes, but is not limited to, information you provide when you make a donation, when you register for use of, or participation in, events through our site, subscribe to our newsletter, or communicate with our team members via the Website. The information you give us may include your name, address, e-mail address and phone number, credit card information, personal description, donation amount, and any other information provided.

We use third party vendors for online donations, and the Website may contain links to and from websites of our partner networks, advertisers, and affiliates. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that these websites have their own privacy policies and we do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data to these websites.

For donations made to DuPage Health Coalition through the Website, we use GiveLively.org and Stripe.com

The Give Lively privacy policy can be reviewed at <https://www.givelively.org/privacy>.

Stripe is a third-party payment vendor subject to the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards. The Stripe privacy policy can be reviewed at <https://stripe.com/privacy>.

Disclosure of Your Information

You agree that we have the right to share your personal information with selected third parties including:

- our affiliates; and
- contractors, service providers and other third parties we use to support our charitable activities;
- to fulfill the purpose for which you provide the information, for any other purpose disclosed by us when you provide the information or for any other purpose with your consent.

We will also disclose your personal information to third parties if we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply our terms of use and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of the DuPage Health Coalition, our supporters, or others.

Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you via email in the future to share program information or changes to this privacy policy.

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline.

Wherever we collect sensitive information (such as credit card data), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a closed lock icon at the bottom of your web browser or looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the web page.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline as described below. The computers/servers on which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.

How We Protect the Information

We take commercially reasonable steps to protect personal information and other information from loss, misuse, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. Please understand, however, that no security system is impenetrable. We cannot guarantee the security of our databases, nor can we guarantee that the information that you supply will not be intercepted while being transmitted to and from us over the internet. In particular, e-mail sent to or from the Platform may not be secure, and you should, therefore, take special care in deciding what information you send to us via e-mail. Please do not share personal private information via unencrypted email as it could expose you to data hacking, and we cannot guarantee the security of information shared in this way. We encourage you to call us if you have concerns about how to securely share your information with us.

To help prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect. Our website uses a Transport Layer Security, the standard security technology for establishing an encrypted link between a web server and a browser. This link ensures that all data passed between the web server and browsers remain private. All online donation transactions are handled by Payment Card Industry (PCI)-compliant vendors. PCI refers to the technical and operational standards that businesses must follow to ensure that credit card data provided by cardholders is protected.

Partners

Partners include, but are not limited to:
